New York, 29.—The Herald's correspondent at Fekin sends an interesting report of conversations between Angell, our new minister to China, and Li Hung Chang, in which the latter, after expressing his disappointment that Grant was not nominated for the presidency, proceeded to criticise the consular and diplomatic service of the United States in the cast. He spoke of the irregularities and exactles which had occurred, and laid the blame of them mainly on the unsufficient salaries paid to our representatives in its country. He thought it rather creditable to them, considering their small pay, that they do no worse. Li Hung Chang was at the time busily engaged with the Brazilian, Spanish and Peruyian diplomalists, all of whom ask leave to carry Chinese to their country. "We will have no more coule trestie."
